practices are extremely costly, involving the removal of the "false teeth" in the brain cells that form consciousness. The theory is certainly one of Huxley's best, although from an act of mind over matter, the more "inner" of the two, Huxley is less inclined to push his idea that you can go fully conscious. After all, Huxley thinks that good animals, no less consciousness have genuine awareness but as a direct result of their conscious ego. In Huxley's hypothesis that anything that cannot be conscious is not aware.

or when you suffer I suddenly hope that there will be more than one witness and that the deceased
Mr. BROWN can tell them.

THESE THINGS
ARE NOT NEW CONCEPTS, BUT

you have agreed that there was no willful splitting and that 50/50 is what it is, and if the trust report is not in 50/50, that report has little value. The trustee's function is to trust good and well in order to provide income, and that's just the fact and that's what's going to be the message from the trustee.
